VOL. XXXVI. NO. 15

A Matchless Cunningham Piano
To Be Given Away Free!

A Free-For-All Contest

We want to get the names and numbers of all the pianos that have been in use in your locality for ten years or more, along with the names and addresses of the owners.

For this information we will give free to every person who enters the contest and solves the attached puzzle correctly, a song book entitled "Our National Songs."

At the bottom of the advertisement is a list of questions that must be answered by each contestant.

To the person who answers all these questions accurately, and in the nearest possible way, besides solving the puzzle accurately, we will award a style 25 Matchless Cunningham Piano, valued at $500, taking the winner's old piano or organ in even exchange.

Conditions of the Contest
No competitor's answer will be considered if he omits answering a single one of the questions contained in the coupon.

Each answer must occupy no more space than the attached coupon.

Every competitor must have his answer in our hands by Saturday, November 28th, 1908.

On November 28th, 1908, the prize Cunningham Piano will be awarded.

All those who fail in point of neatness, but answer the questions contained in the attached coupon accurately, and solve the puzzle accurately, will receive "Our National Songs" anyway.

To compile so many coupons as we shall receive in answer to this advertisement will involve much labor. So that if you use the coupon, it must be filled neatly from this advertisement. If you do not use the coupon, it must be the same size as the coupon, and the questions and answers must be arranged in the same order.

Send in your answer today.
